PUBLIC NOTICE

Procedural Requirement:
Local Rule 3.2, Certificate of Interested Persons

Effective March 1, 2008, the following procedural change will be implemented by the Court:

Pursuant to Local Rule 3.2, Certificate of Interested Persons, a certificate must be furnished by counsel for all private parties, both plaintiffs and defendants, which shall be incorporated on the first page of each complaint and answer. The certificate shall certify a full and complete list of all parties; officers, directors or trustees of parties; and all other persons, associations of persons, firms, partnerships, subsidiary or parent corporations or organizations which have a financial interest in, or another interest which could be substantially affected by, the outcome of the particular case. Further, should a merger or acquisition occur during the pendency of litigation, counsel shall so notify the Court in writing.

For more information on procedural matters, please contact the Clerk's Office or visit the Court's web site at www.gas.uscourts.gov.
