POSITION: Chief Deputy Clerk (Type II)
LOCATION: Savannah, Georgia
SALARY RANGE: JSP 14–16 ($98,633 - $136,070)
Starting salary commensurate with experience, qualifications, and education.
CLOSING DATE: To ensure consideration, applications should be received by August 21, 2015.
Open until filled.

POSITION OVERVIEW:

The Chief Deputy Clerk is a senior management position that assumes the duties and responsibilities of the Clerk of Court in the Clerk's absence. Under the direction of the Clerk, the Chief Deputy is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Clerk's Office, including but not limited to: case management, courtroom services, data quality, statistical analysis and reporting, information technology, financial management, budget, space and facilities, human resources, internal controls, property and procurement, emergency preparedness, and training. The Chief Deputy analyzes the quality and quantity of work and takes or recommends corrective actions; makes recommendations to the Clerk of Court on various management matters; implements and refines policies and procedures to enhance the productivity and effectiveness of the Clerk's Office; assists in organizational and strategic planning; evaluates the performance of staff; and prepares special studies and narrative reports. The Chief Deputy assists with the application of the Guide to Judiciary Policy, Bankruptcy Code and Rules, and Local Rules of the Court. The Chief Deputy is the alternate Certifying Officer for the Court. Occasional travel, particularly within the district, is required.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Qualified candidates must possess a minimum of six (6) years progressively responsible experience in administrative, supervisory, managerial, or professional work in public service or business that provided an opportunity to acquire a thorough knowledge of the basic concepts, principles, policies and theories of management. At least three of the six years of experience must have been in a position of substantial management responsibility. Some educational substitutions may apply. A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a discipline appropriate to the position is required. Completion of a post-graduate degree in such fields as public, business, or court administration, or law is preferred.

Candidates must demonstrate the leadership, analytical, and interpersonal skills necessary to successfully manage a complex organization. Solid verbal and written communication skills, familiarity with automated case management systems, knowledge of sound financial controls and policies, ability to adapt and lead in a changing work environment, proven project management skills, and ability to effectively resolve employee relation issues and cultivate a harmonious team environment. Managerial experience in the federal judiciary is highly desired; experience in bankruptcy court operations and administration preferred.
