

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

General Order No. 2025-1

Vacating General Order No. 2012-1 and Implementing Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3002.1 as Amended

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Rules” or the “Rule”) 3002.1, which went into effect on December 1, 2011, requires the holder of a claim secured by a Chapter 13 debtor’s principal residence to disclose the amount of any pre-petition arrearage, the status of post-petition payments, and any post-petition fees, expenses, or charges. On December 4, 2012, the Court adopted General Order No. 2012-1 implementing Rule 3002.1.

Certain amendments to Rule 3002.1 became effective on December 1, 2025. Based on these amendments, the Court finds it necessary to vacate General Order No. 2012-1 and adopt the following procedures. Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that General Order No. 2012-1 is VACATED; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Chapter 13 trustee shall not pay any fees, expenses, or charges disclosed by a creditor under Rule 3002.1(c), as amended, unless the debtor’s plan provides otherwise; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Rule 3002.1(g), as amended, the Chapter 13 trustee shall file Official Form 410C13-N, entitled “Trustee’s Notice of Disbursements Made,” within 45 days after the debtor’s completion of plan payments; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if an order granting stay relief is vacated, or if the stay is reimposed, the requirements of Rule 3002.1 shall again become applicable.

Michele J. Kim, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court
Southern District of Georgia

Dated this 1st day of December, 2025.
