ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Funding for various federal departments and agencies of the United States of America lapsed at the end of the day on September 30, 2025, resulting in a federal government shutdown beginning at 12:01 a.m. on October 1, 2025. The Court entered Administrative Order 2025-1 on October 2, 2025, continuing certain matters involving the United States of America, including any of its departments or agencies; extending certain deadlines imposed on the United States of America, including any of its departments, agencies, and officers or employees in their official capacities; and staying adversary proceedings to which the United States of America, including any of its departments, agencies, and officers or employees in their official capacities, is a party.

As of November 3, 2025, the federal government shutdown continues. It is unknown whether or when funding will be restored to the federal government. Given these circumstances, the Court deems it appropriate to enter this Administrative Order. Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. All hearings in bankruptcy cases involving any claim, lien, or other interest of the United States of America, including any of its departments or agencies, scheduled on or after November 4, 2025, through December 1, 2025, are continued and shall be placed on the next appropriate calendar. All § 341 meetings of creditors noticed for November 4, 2025, through December 1, 2025, shall proceed as scheduled;

2. All current deadlines in bankruptcy cases imposed upon the United States of America, including any of its departments, agencies, and officers or employees in their official capacities, shall be extended through and including December 1, 2025;

3. The stay of all adversary proceedings to which the United States of America, including any of its departments, agencies, and officers or employees in their official capacities, is a party as set forth in Administrative Order 2025-1 remains in effect until such time that funding is restored to the federal government, subject to paragraph 4 of Administrative Order 2025-1.

SO ORDERED, this 3rd day of November, 2025.

Michele J. Kim

Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge
Southern District of Georgia
