Meet the Honorable Michele J. Kim

Born in Midland, Michigan, Judge Kim moved with her family to Augusta, Georgia, when she was a young girl. She graduated from high school in Augusta, and then obtained her undergraduate degree at the University of Georgia. For three years, she worked in marketing for Anheuser-Busch, and then she returned to the University of Georgia for law school.

Upon receiving her law degree, Judge Kim moved to Brunswick to serve as a law clerk to the Honorable John S. Dalis, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Georgia, followed by a clerkship with the Honorable Anthony A. Alaimo, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of Georgia. Thereafter, Judge Kim went into practice with King & Spalding in Atlanta, where she specialized in corporate restructuring, federal compliance, and commercial real estate and lending.

Since 2014, Judge Kim has been married to Ryan Babcock, a fellow attorney. Both are thrilled to be living on the coast.

Please help us welcome Judge Kim as our new judge!

The Honorable J. Randal Hall (right), Chief U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of Georgia, administered the oath of office to Judge Kim.

These rules are scheduled to take effect December 1, 2017. The entire package of materials transmitted to Congress is available here.

Local Chapter 13 Plan

An amendment to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3015 requires the use of a national Chapter 13 plan form unless a district adopts a local plan form that meets the requirements of new Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3015.1. This court will opt out of the official plan form. The scheduled effective date of amended Rule 3015 and new Rule 3015.1 is December 1, 2017, which will also serve as the effective date of the new Chapter 13 plan form for the Southern District of Georgia.

The court appointed a Chapter 13 Plan Committee to review and revise the local Chapter 13 plan to meet the standards of new Rule 3015.1. The Committee members met regularly to provide feedback on drafts. On April 21, 2017, at the Coastal Bankruptcy Law Institute (CBLI) Bankruptcy Law and Trends Seminar held in Savannah, Chief Judge Barrett led a plenary session on the draft, local Chapter 13 plan and the related pending rule amendments, along with Huon Le, Standing Chapter 13 Trustee for the Augusta and Dublin Divisions (Committee Co-Chair), Paul A. Schofield (Committee Co-Chair), Attorney at The Schofield Law Firm, P.C., Brunswick, and Drew K. Stutzman, Attorney at Ellis, Painter, Ratterree & Adams, LLP, Savannah. The three Standing Chapter 13 trustees in this district, Huon Le, Elaina Massey, and Byron Meredith, also led a break-out session on the plan and pending rule changes.

After considering feedback from CBLI, the court, in conjunction with the Chapter 13 Plan Committee, published a version of the draft, local plan for an initial comment period from May 5-31, 2017. A number of substantive comments were received. Following consideration of those comments and further Committee review and edits, the court posted a draft for a second and final comment period. See Amended Public Notice dated August 2, 2017. The draft plan may be accessed at: <http://www.gasb.uscourts.gov/pdf/CH13PlanDraftAug1-2017.pdf> Comments may be submitted to bankruptcy\_court@gas.uscourts.gov on or before this Thursday, August 31, 2017. Comments received by the court are posted at: Chapter 13 Plan–Public Comments on the court’s website under News and Announcements.

Chapter 13 “No Look” Fee

On June 30, 2017, the bankruptcy judges in this district held an en banc hearing in the miscellaneous proceeding of In the Matter of Attorney Compensation in Chapter 13 Cases, Misc. Proc. No. 17-00201, in which evidence and arguments were presented regarding why compensation of debtors' attorneys in Chapter 13 cases should be increased. On July 17, 2017, the court entered General Order 2017-2, increasing the “no look” fee to $4,500.00, effective in Chapter 13 cases filed on or after July 24, 2017. The order vacated General Order 2010-3.

Updated Rule 26(f) Report and Scheduling Order to Account for Stern-Related Rule Amendments

As you will note, on December 1, 2016, there were amendments to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure in response to the Supreme Court's opinion in Stern v. Marshall, 131 S. Ct. 2594 (2011) and related opinions in Executive Benefits Ins. Agency v. Arkison, 134 S. Ct. 2165 (2014) and Wellness Int'l Network, Ltd. v. Sharif, 135 S. Ct. 1932 (2015). Rules 7008, 7012 and 9027 were amended to eliminate the requirement that a pleader include a statement that a proceeding is core or non-core. Now, in all proceedings, the pleader must state whether the party does or does not consent to entry of final orders and judgments by the bankruptcy court. This consent statement must be included in every complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, third-party complaint, responsive pleading, notice of removal and any responsive pleading filed in connection with a removed action. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7008(a), 7012(b), 9027(a) and (e).

Rule 9033, addressing proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, was amended to eliminate language limiting the provision to non-core proceedings. The committee note, in part, states: "Some proceedings that satisfy the statutory definition of core proceedings, 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), may remain beyond the constitutional power of a bankruptcy judge to adjudicate finally."

Notably, new subdivision (b) of Rule 7016 states:

DETERMINING PROCEDURE. The bankruptcy court shall decide, on its own motion or a party's timely motion, whether:

- (1) to hear and determine that proceeding;
- (2) to hear the proceeding and issue proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law; or
- (3) to take some other action.

The committee note to Rule 7016(b), in part, reads: "The rule leaves the decision as to the appropriate course of proceedings to the bankruptcy court. The court's decision will be informed by the parties' statements, required under Rules 7008(a), 7012(b), and 9027(a) and (e), regarding consent to the entry of final orders and judgment."

The standard form templates for the Rule 26(f) Report and the court's Scheduling Order have been revised to specify that Rule 7016(b) motions must be filed within 30 days after the close of discovery. This is consistent with the deadline for filing other civil motions and Daubert motions, excluding motions in limine. The court's Scheduling Order also specifies that: "The failure of any party to file a Rule 7016(b) motion by this deadline shall constitute consent to this court entering all final orders and judgments in this proceeding." You may access a fillable version of the Rule 26(f) Report from the court's website under Court Forms.

eOrder Reminders

- The amendments to the court's Administrative Procedures for Filing, Signing, and Verifying Pleadings and Papers by Electronic Means (effective December 1, 2016) made eOrders mandatory for electronic filers with full filing privileges (i.e., attorneys admitted to practice before the court, trustees). Proposed orders are required to be filed on the docket and uploaded in eOrders. Please ensure that all proposed orders conform to the sample order templates as provided in the eOrder Guidelines and Procedures for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Georgia. When uploading an eOrder, do not include a distribution list or a certificate of service. An order that includes such attachments will be returned to the filer who will be responsible for the removal of the pages and the re-upload of the order into the system.
- Remember to include counsel identification on proposed orders. Local Rule 9072-1(d) states: "Whenever any proposed order is submitted for entry by the bankruptcy court, including a consent order, the proposed order shall identify the attorney who prepared the order, the name of the party represented by such attorney, and shall include the attorney's signature, name, address, telephone number, and Georgia State Bar number, if the attorney is a member of the State Bar of Georgia."

Updated Order on Motion for Relief from Stay

The following two modifications were made to the standard Order on Motion for Relief from Stay (Local Form B-55):

- The court deleted the following language and corresponding checkbox: "If relief is granted under this Order, Movant and Trustee shall thereafter be relieved from complying with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3002.1 in the instant bankruptcy case prospectively from the date the relief is granted." The amendment to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3002.1(a), which became effective December 1, 2016, clarifies that: "Unless the court orders otherwise, the notice requirements of this rule cease to apply when an order terminating or annulling the automatic stay becomes effective with respect to the residence that secures the claim." Since Fed. R. Bankruptcy P. 3002.1(a) directly addresses this, the language and checkbox in the order are no longer needed.
- The revised form also provides fillable fields for including counsel identification that is consistent with the requirements of local Rule 9072-1(d).

The revised B-55 form is available on the court's public website in a fillable eOrders format as well as a fillable format for use by pro se creditors. As you will recall, the General Order 2017-1, entered April 20, 2017, makes use of the B-55 form permitted, but not required, in Chapter 11, Chapter 12, and non-consumer Chapter 7 cases. The B-55 form is still required to be used in all Chapter 13 cases and consumer Chapter 7 cases.

Revised Judge Assignments

With the retirement of Judge John S. Dalis and the appointment of Judge Michele J. Kim, caseloads have been reassigned among all of the judges. Notably, cases in the Savannah and Statesboro Divisions will be split among the judges. Please see the chart below outlining the new case assignments, and remember that there may be specific cases recused or matters referred to a different judge.

Chief Judge Barrett	Judge Coleman	Judge Kim
All Augusta Cases	All Savannah Ch. 7, 11, 12 Cases	All Brunswick Cases
All Dublin Cases	70% of Savannah Ch. 13 Cases	30% of Savannah Ch. 13 Cases
All Statesboro Ch. 7 Cases	All Statesboro Ch. 11, 12, 13 Cases	All Waycross Cases

Depositing and Disbursing Funds in the Court Registry

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has begun enforcing regulations on interest-bearing moneys held by courts, including funds held as disputed ownership funds in interpleader cases. Interpleader funds deposited under 28 U.S.C. § 1335 meet the IRS definition of a “Disputed Ownership Fund” (DOF), a taxable entity that requires tax administration. Pursuant to General Order 2016-1, unless otherwise ordered by the court, interpleader funds shall be deposited in the DOF established within the Court Registry Investment System and administered by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, which shall be responsible for meeting all DOF tax administration requirements.

Two new events have been added in CM/ECF to help attorneys choose the appropriate motion dealing with interpleader funds:

- Adversary > Motions > Interpleader Deposit (28 U.S.C. Section 1335)
- Adversary > Motions > Interpleader Disbursement (28 U.S.C. Section 1335)

Motions for deposits and disbursements of other funds with the court should continue to be filed using Motion to Deposit Funds into Court Registry and Motion to Release Funds from Court Registry.

CM/ECF TIPS & TRICKS

Search Feature

The Search feature located on the blue menu bar in CM/ECF is a helpful tool when looking for an event. By clicking on Search and entering a keyword, such as Extend for Extend Time to Pay Filing Fees, CM/ECF will list all the areas where the word can be found. This is an excellent way to verify events prior to filing your documents.

Adding a New Party to a Case

The party pick list in CM/ECF displays all parties in the case. Since the party database is populated by all users, there is a good chance that a party will already be in the system. The screen titled Select the Party will show a box with the parties already associated with the case.

If the party is in the database, verify that the name and address are an exact match. If they are a match, click to select the name. If they are not a match, select the proper name from the list and modify the address by removing the old address and entering the address from your pdf document. Close the box, then select the role for the party and click Submit. The party pick list will display again. Click Next to continue docketing.

If the party is not located in the database, click Create New Party and complete the name and address fields. Select the role for the party, then click Submit. The party pick list will display again. Click Next to continue docketing.

Mock Trials

Judge Coleman continues to provide learning opportunities to area middle and high school students by periodically conducting mock trials in his courtroom. On April 28, 2017, students from the Classical Conversations home school cooperative participated in a mock trial of the civil case of Sam Parker v. C.J. Calhoun in the Court of Common Pleas, Eight Judicial Circuit, State of South Carolina, County of Abbeville. This case involved the legal question of fault in a traffic accident between a bicyclist and a vehicle. James Stuchel Assistant U.S. Attorney, did an excellent job preparing the students for the event with approximately 70 people in attendance.

On May 12, 2017, the Savannah High School Law Academy participated in a mock trial of the criminal case of United States v. Captain Thomas Dudley. This case was modeled after The Regina v. Dudley and Stephens, 14 Q.B.D. 273 (1884), a case of cannibalism on the high seas. The students gained valuable assistance from their instructor, Robert Kicklighter, as well as Eric Fritch, law student at Savannah Law School, and Shaquan Gaither of the U.S. Attorney's Office.

If you are interested in volunteering for future mock trials, please contact Debbie Reese (debbie\_reese@gas.uscourts.gov), Judicial Assistant to Judge Coleman.
