

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

ORDER SETTING EXPIRATION DATE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2020-2

This Court entered Administrative Order Number 2020-2 ("Administrative Order 2020-2") on March 19, 2020 and provided that it applied through April 10, 2020. Because the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic continued and states of emergency continued in the United States and the State of Georgia, on April 9, 2020 the deadline of Administrative Order 2020-2 was extended indefinitely until further order of the Court.

On April 10, 2023, following House and Senate passage, the President signed into law a Joint Resolution (H.J. Res. 7), which provides that "the national emergency declared by the finding of the President on March 13, 2020, in Proclamation 9994... is hereby terminated." Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED, that the Amended Administrative Order 2020-2, modifying General Order 2016-2 and its accompanying Administrative Procedures & CM/ECF Local Rules, will expire on Wednesday, May 10, 2023. Thereafter, the Court will return to pre-pandemic practices that applied prior to Administrative Order 2020-2.

This 27th day of April, 2023

Edward J. Coleman, III
Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge
